

Classification of environmental performance levels

Paints products and varnishes are classified according to environmental performance card to three levels as follows:

environmental performance level stipulations	Class
The product must be free from formaldehyde content and conformed to heavy metals limits (zinc- lead- cadmium-chrome) and organic volatile materials (highest environmental performance)	A
The product must be free from formaldehyde content and conformed to heavy metals limits (zinc- lead- cadmium-chrome)	B
The product must be free from formaldehyde (lowest environmental performance)	C